

A Co-relational study of Spiritual Intelligence and Mental Health of 12th Science's Students

Shashikant Daud*

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathawada University, Aurangabad

This study conducted to observe the relationship between Spiritual and Mental health of 12th Science's Students. The study participants comprised of 100. The Mean Age of Participants is 16.4 year and SD =1.2. All the participants were science stream of class 12th from different High-schools of Aurangabad City, Maharashtra. All the participants were Male. Purposive sampling technique used to collect data. The data collected by School Environment Inventory, Spiritual Intelligence Scale and Mental Health Battery by Arun Kumar Sinh. The result indicate that, School Environment and Spiritual Intelligence have positive correlation. There was positive correlation between Spiritual Intelligence and Mental Health.

Keywords: Spiritual Intelligence, School Environment, Mental Health, Spiritual Intelligence Scale