

The Brief study of Anita Rau Badami's novels.

Parghi Monaliben J

(M.A. English), Saurashtra University , Rajkot

Abstract

This present research study is focused on Anita Rau badami's novel with feminist perspective and cultural touch of India in herworks. Asian immigration, identity crisis, foreign culture, observation and fight for own place at unknown geographical land will be the key of works study. Diaspora literature deals with alienation, displacement, existential rootlessness, nostalgia quest of identity. It will also addresses issues related to amalgamation or disintegration of cultures. How women suffer after migration, and how people adjust in different geographical land also how culture .

Keyword: Migration, Diaspora, Women identity, Indianess.